VOLUME XXVIII.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1893.

NUMBER 34.

THE GRAND OPENING OF THE

FAMILY & POCKET-BOOK

During the Holidays having now closed, we propose making a season of rejoicing by showing where the few dollars left can be placed to the best advantage. In the first place,

Those Splendid Blankets,

But speaking of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Garters, etc., generally, we suggest that you come in and see just what we have. It is a confidential matter between us.

J. WATSON & CO., OREGON, MISSOURI

ANNOUNCEMENT.

More goods were sold by us in 1892 than in any previous year of our hardware business, and in returning thanks for the patronage received, we desire to say that we will be better prepared to show you a larger stock of Hardware, Implements, Stoves, Sewing Machines, Tinware, Etc., than ever before.

IN 1893

We have made great reduction on price of Heating Stoves, in order to close them out. Have one large Round Oak Stove, suitable for store room, or school house, that we will sell at a low price. We wish all our patrons a Happy and prosperous New Year.

T. L. PRICE, Hardware,

OREGON, MISSOURI.

Call and See Us.

We extend a cordial invitation to the public to call and inspect our Stock of DRUGS.

TOILET AND

FANCY ARTICLES.

CIGARS & TOBACCO.

Yours for Good Bargains.

CHANDLER & PIERCE, NEW POINT, MO.

-Fresh oysters at L. I. Moore's.
-Miss Lilly Foster, of Maitland, is at home on a visit.

-Try George Seeman for flour. He keeps all grades.

-Will John come in from Stanbury Wednesday to see his ma.

-Rev. John reports an interesting meeting in progress at the Calumet house.

-Fred Neudorff and his brother, William, of St. Joseph, were attending court, this week.

-I have a few piano hammers, lap robes and horse blankets left, which I will close out at cost. H. C. Schmidt, Oregon.

-Do you need a clock? Fleggenbaum has an electric time of eight day alarm, striking, with or without pendulum, at all prices.

-T. L. Price has reduced the prices on heating stoves to almost cost, in order to close them out. Go and see them - he will give you a bargain.

-I have twelve monarch Bronze turkeys, five doves and seven pigeons - which I will offer for sale as firewood for a short time only, at $3 and $4 per head. Rufus Meyer, New Point, Mo.

-For sale - Farm of 165 acres, about 100 in cultivation, good orchard, good timber, fine stone building, 10 miles northeast of Forest City, Mo. Reasonable terms and reasonable prices. Call on or adress, W. W. Wilson, Forest City, Mo.

-James T. Howell has received his back oven and other fixtures, and has also had a large show window placed in the front part of the building and other advantages of the same. He will be the men of the same. He will, as soon as everything is in running order, discontinue his eating regular meals, and serve short orders.

-Prof. Thorpe is now in Chicago, where he is purchasing another large stock of pianos and organs, which will be divided, Mr. C. H. Hiltz, of this city, receiving half, and Prof. J. D. Hiltz, of Mount City, the other half. Mr. Hiltz says that this will be the finest engagement of instruments in style, finish and tone ever received in Oregon, and extends a cordial invitation to all to call and see him.

-The Saturday A. guy, of St. Joseph, is the latest candidate for favors in the political field. J. D. Hiltz, the city editor of the St. Joseph Herald, is in charge of the editorial work and management. He is an experienced newspaper man, and the Democrats of that city and state should support the "A. guy" with a will. They don't need a Democratic paper, and they need it badly. Mr. Davis will give them this kind of a paper if he is properly encouraged.

Subscribe for THE SENTINEL and receive three other first-class publications free for one year.

Our big inducements will only last until February 1st, 1893.

Drillings, 8-13 cent. Slesia, 10 cent.
